

A Day to Remember

Sample Paper 24: Conventions

Once i got to fly in a balloon. This sounds like I'm making it up, but I'm not! It was won of those big balloons with a basket you kan sit in. We floated way up in the sky. We were so high we could see for a million miles. I could see farms. The animals wer tiny, like toys. I could see little kars on th roads. The best thing was my house. It looked looked so small. I could not believe I lived in something so small. I felt like a bird flying through the sky?
